In this section you will find the answers to questions 1.1 - 1.7 below.

The scenario reads. You are wanting to set up as a consultant. To prove your knowledge you want to start by creating a blog talking about yourself, why you are interested in technology and demonstrate how much you know. For each of the sections below asking you to describe, include around a paragraph of information about the topic.

Outcome 1.1 - Describe the purpose of IT in modern business
